

An Introduction to Enterprise Architect

Wednesday 25th March 2009

Free seminar organised by the Newcastle Upon Tyne and District branch of the BCS
In Room A001, Ellison Building, Northumbria University, Newcastle Upon Tyne, UK

6.45 pm Registration

7.00 pm Presentation

- UML as an industry standard for IT analysis and design
- EA support for UML throughout the systems development lifecycle
- Requirements gathering, use case modelling and traceability
- Business process definition and activity diagrams
- Domain class models, code generation and database design
- Dynamic models (sequence and statechart diagrams)
- XMI industry standard for sharing UML models between products
- Export scope from EA to generate estimates and project plans in Circa

7.45 pm Demonstration

- using EA to produce a variety of UML models
- showing traceability between models
- using XMI to integrate between EA and Circa

8.15 pm Question and Answer Session / Networking Opportunity

9.00 pm Finish

Presented by Tassc Ltd.
www.tassc-solutions.com
01506 202164

Tassc is an Authorised Global Training Partner for Sparx Systems Enterprise Architect.

Authorised Training Partner